

EBES Newsletter

Issue: 2, June 2014

Dear EBES Members,

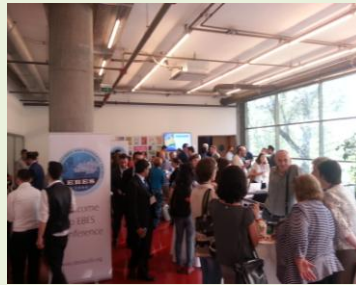

Thank you for your interest and support in our organization. EBES now has over 1000 members from 74 different countries. And since from our first conference, we have had around 5000 colleagues from 91 different countries and 2825 academic papers have been presented.

In our 13th conference, which was held on June 5th, 6th, and 7th, 2014 at Istanbul Bilgi University in Istanbul, Turkey, 278 papers by 518 colleagues from 62 different countries were presented.

We are honored that distinguished researchers Cheng Hsiao (the University of Southern California, USA), John Rust (the Georgetown University, USA), Peter Rangazas (Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis, USA), Euston Quah (Nanyang Technological University, Singapore), and Tatarkin Alexander Ivanovich (the Ural Branch of Russian Academy of Sciences, Russia) have joined the conference as invited speakers. Additionally, we organized a special session entitled “Challenges for Central Banking and New Policy Experiences of the Central Banks in the Global Economy” with the participation of Lokman Gunduz (the Central Bank of the Republic of Turkey, Turkey), Ad van Riet (the European Central Bank, Germany), Ahmet Faruk Aysan (the Central Bank of the Republic of Turkey, Turkey), and Khalid Rashid Al Khater (the Qatar Central Bank, Qatar).

Furthermore, the best paper award in the conference went to “Does Trade Cause Capital to Flow? Evidence from Historical Rainfalls” by Sebnem Kalemli-Ozcan from University of Houston, U.S.A. and Alex Nikolsko-Rzhevskyy, Lehigh University, U.S.A. We would like to thank Professor John Rust from Georgetown University for his generous support to the Best Paper Award.
