EBES Newsletter
Issue: 35, October 2022

Dear EBES Members,

We have successfully organized our forty-first conference on October 12-14, 2022. The conference was jointly organized with the GLO (Global Labor Organization) with the support of the Istanbul Economic Research Association and in collaboration with the FOM University of Applied Sciences in hybrid mode with both online and in-person presentation at the FOM University of Applied Sciences in Berlin, Germany.

It was great to receive top-tier papers from distinguished scholars from all over the world. We regret that we were unable to accept more papers. In the conference, 215 papers by 440 colleagues from 53 countries were presented. We would like to thank all of the conference participants and invited speakers for their contribution to the conference. The first day of the conference was organized to have in-person only presentations. Some of our members had the opportunity to meet the conference participants in person and enjoy the sessions and network in person.

In the 41st EBES Conference, the Best Paper Award went to "Optimal Retirement with Long-Run Income Risk" by Shan Huang from Schneller Business School, Georgia Tech, U.S.A. and Seyoung Park from University of Nottingham, U.K. Runner-up paper was "Parenting during the Pandemic: An Analysis of the Time Use of Parents as K-12 Schools Reopened in the United States" by Cynthia Bansak from St. Lawrence University, U.S.A.; Yue Bao from Jinan University, China; and Jun Hyung Kim from Jinan University, China. Third paper was "Bank Socialness: It Matters When It Counts" by Joseph Arthur from University of Iowa, U.S.A.

We would like to thank to Professor John Rust from Georgetown University for his generous support to the Best Paper Award.
