EBES Newsletter
Issue: 36, December 2022

Dear EBES Members,

We have experienced another extra ordinary year. Without your loyalty and support this year, we wouldn't be where we are. Therefore, on behalf of EBES, we would like to thank all of you for your commitment. With this final issue of the year, we would like to update you on EBES as we advance to 2023.

We believe 2022 was a transition year as we have gradually moved from online-only conferences to hybrid conferences. We are glad that we hosted some of our members in-person at our conferences in 2022. As the COVID-19 dissipates in the world, we are expecting more in-person conference participation in 2023.

Researchers are predicting that the coronavirus is not likely to leave us for a very long time. Thus, we will continue to provide online presentation option in our conferences going forward. We are looking forward to meeting all of you next year again, either in-person or online!

We wish all of you and your loved ones enjoyable times together this season and look forward to connecting with you in person in 2023.

Happy New Year!

Best,

EBES

Klaus F. Zimmermann received the IEA Fellow Award!

On December 1, EBES President Klaus F. Zimmermann was chosen as one of the recipients of 2022 IEA Fellow Awards of the International Economic Association, which institutes the annual IEA Fellow honorific award to recognize excellence in economic research, research-driven popular writing, and economic policymaking. This is a recognition of outstanding work and is awarded to at most 10 individuals in the world. Congratulations, Prof. Zimmermann!

New Growth Plan for EBES Journals

EBES and Springer agreed to increase the number of published papers in EBES journals starting in 2023! With the new agreement, Eurasian Business Review and Eurasian Economic Review will publish 32 papers in 2023, 36 articles in 2024, and 40 articles in 2025. We recommend our members submit their valuable studies to EBES journals! We believe that this move will increase EBES Journals' visibility and impact positively.
