

EBES Newsletter
Issue: 43, October 2024

Dear EBES Members,

We are delighted to announce the successful completion of our 49th conference, held on October 16-18, 2024. The conference was organized with the support of the Istanbul Economic Research Association in hybrid mode with both online and in-person presentation at the Department of Economics, University of Piraeus in Athens, Greece.

The conference welcomes high-caliber papers from distinguished scholars from all over the world. Unfortunately, not all papers could be accommodated. In the conference, 202 papers by 421 colleagues from 55 countries were presented. We, EBES, extend our heartfelt thanks to all of the conference participants and invited speakers for their valuable contribution.

In the 49th EBES Conference, the prestigious John P. Rust Best Paper Award went to “Comovements and Determinants of Sovereign Credit Default Swaps” by Hasan Isomitdinov from University of Alabama, U.S.A.; Junsoo Lee from University of Alabama, U.S.A.; and Vladimir Arčabić from University of Alabama, U.S.A. We are grateful to Springer Nature for their support to the Best Paper Award.

Runner-up Award was presented to “The Moderating Role of Country-level Governance on the Relationship between Corporate Governance and Bank Performance Evidence from Deposit Money Banks from Sub-Saharan African Countries (SSA)” by Ayotunde Qudus Saka from Robert Gordon University, U.K.; Xin Zhang from Robert Gordon University, U.K.; and Omaima Hassan from Robert Gordon University, U.K. Third paper was “The Role of Intra-Field and Inter-Field Knowledge Spillovers in the Diffusion of Renewable Energy Technologies” by Daniel Coronado from University of Cadiz, Spain; Esther Ferrandiz Leon from University of Cadiz, Spain; and Jennifer Medina from University of Cadiz, Spain.

We thank all who contributed to the success of the conference and look forward to the insights and impact these works will bring to the field.
